DEUTSCHE GESELLSCHAFT FÜR ENDOPROTHETIK

The AE - Deutsche Gesellschaft für Endoprothetik [German Society for Endoprosthesis], is a section of the German Society for Orthopaedics and Trauma (DGOU). It is responsible for all questions relating to endoprosthesis.

The AE was established in 1996 in Regensburg as a non-profit association. Members of the AE are leading orthopaedists, trauma surgeons and scientists concerned with the issues of endoprosthesis and alternative treatment methods for the preservation of joints.
